WE HAVE THE SOLUTION TO THE PROBLEM

Caravans are expensive, they're your home from home. Maintaining their condition and repairing them is not cheap either. Each season you will tow your caravan up and down the country, some of you even abroad. You can clock up hundreds of miles in all weather conditions and on all road surfaces. Your caravan can then be stood for 3-4 months unused, left to withstand what the winter elements throw at it.

Your caravan is exposed to so many detrimental effects of both towing and long term storage. From stone chips and dirt that are stubborn to clean off, to UV damage on your paintwork and rubbers seals, everyone has experienced arriving on site with their caravan splattered in unsightly mud and dirt and found themselves cleaning it down at the start of every season. With a Tow Pro and Storage cover, you eliminate these issues.

We spoke with caravan repair experts about the costs of repairing damage caused by towing and storage.

DID YOU KNOW...

- When trading in your caravan, dealers inspecting the condition can reduce their valuations by up to £1000 due to wear and tear.
- Repairing even superficial damage caused by stone chips can cost between £300 - £1500. Even modest DIY repairs such as touching up dents and marks can negatively affect valuations.
- Replacing rubber seals and repairing UV damage to both paint work and upholstery can again be at great cost in both time and money.
- Repairs can take anything from 2 days to 2 weeks.
